Sanskriti is an institute for Indian culture in New York City, dedicated to the children of the greater New York area. Sanskriti's instruction will instill in its students a deep appreciation of India's heritage with the following objectives:

- To inspire a commitment among students to take traditional Indian art to mainstream America.
- To create a passion and understanding of the modern India
- To support the process of building bridges between the two countries in a multicultural setting.

The institute strives to integrate the ethos of Indian dance, music, history, literature, art and philosophy into the lives of all students. A few will embrace one or more facets of their instruction as a professional career, but above all, individuals will have the knowledge and understanding to appreciate the depth of India's cultural legacy.

In order to provide this opportunity to children from all backgrounds, Sanskriti has scholarships available to students based on need. Scholarships are available for Bharatanatyam lessons and Hindi lessons.

Application Process: To receive consideration for Scholarship, candidates must submit an application to Sanskriti.
